TWO CHINAMEN DROWNED

They Perish in a Terrible Flood at Koloa, Kauai.

Property Damaged and Many Lives Endangered—Lawai Bridge Washed Away—Twenty Feet of Water.

Private letters from Kauai to Hon. Paul R. Isenberg confirm the report of a terrible washout at Koloa last Friday morning.

Two Chinese were drowned in the flood. There may be other fatalities, though none have yet been reported.

The Lawai bridge was lost. It was torn from its foundations and smashed to pieces in the torrent.

It is stated that the Lawai stream rose 20 feet during the freshet.

Considerable damage was done to property all over the Koloa district, especially along the line of the river. Numbers of laborers were driven from their homes by the flood.

Heavy rains fell all over Kauai, though Koloa was the center of the storm.

MAUI ELECTION MATTER.

The Supreme Court Says Must Use Register of 1894.

In reply to questions of the Cabinet respecting the Maui registration question the Supreme Court today submitted the following:

"We are of opinion that the register of voters to be used at the special election for Senator to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Senator Horner must be that used at the last election of Senators, to wit, the register of voters for Senators at the general election of 1894. We construe section 5 of Article 77 of the Constitution to refer to the register of voters and used at the last preceding general election for members of the house in question, that is, to the registry of voters applicable.

Any other construction would lead to absurdities and would render other parts of the Constitution nugatory until the general election of 1899." Signed by Chief Justice Judd, Justice Frear and Justice Whiting.

SENATE TODAY.

Two More Appropriation Bills Carrying a Round Million.

The full report of the Senate is deferred, owing to lack of printers from "sickness in family."

Minister Cooper introduced a bill making special appropriations for public improvements aggregating $731,500, out of the 1896 loan.

Also a bill amending the regular current accounts bill, by adding items to the amount of $263,800. There is $50,000 for immigration other than Asiatics.

The shipping registry bill went over to Thursday.

The Senate reversed its action of last week by passing the original bill, exempting the Y. M. C. A., as well as the Sailors' Home, from taxation. The vote was 8 to 5.

Ammunition All Right.

If all the military companies do not win the Foreign Office trophy next Saturday afternoon, Sergeant C. Elvin will not be to blame for it. With his own hands he made every bullet to be used on that occasion. A brand new mold turned every one of them out. Besides, every one of them has been weighed. Balls found to be the slightest fraction light were discarded. Shells for the occasion have been cleansed by a chemical process. Elvin says the boxes are full of bullseyes.

Not the Heaviest Rain.

On a day in January, 1896, six inches of rain fell in Honolulu in 24 hours. This was nearly double the amount of Thursday's downpour. At that time there were no walls along Nuuanu stream and no bridge at Kukui street. The channel at that time ran over the land overflowed Thursday.
